"This event was an expressive immersion into the world of the tree from multiple points on the globe and performed in both interior and exterior spaces. It also delved philosophically into de-emphasizing gender and self and moving towards broader relationships with the natural world."
Murray, A., 2020. BE-COMING TREE: A FOREST OF ARTISTS UNITE. [online]

2nd BE-COMING TREE Collective Live Art event via Zoom (Sat 31.10.2020, 10-11am GMT)

"The 2nd BE-COMING TREE Collective Live Art event via Zoom will encompass 21 livestreamed performances happening around the globe."

- London, UK, Release: October 13, 2020. For Immediate Release -

The Autumn Be-coming Tree durational Live Art event will showcase a multitude of contemporary artists simultaneously interacting with local trees and woodlands, with some by necessity tuning into the ethos of tree in interior environments. All performances will be captured and shared via Zoom. Be-Coming Tree is a one-hour global Live Art action embracing a perspective of global cooperation, interspecies kinship and grassroots decentralization.

The event will capture performative actions happening remotely in different countries and time zones by and from:

O. Pen Be (UK), Danielle Imara (UK), Jatun Risba (SLO), Anne Murray (HUN), Surya Tüchler (DE), Phil Barton (UK), Annette Arlander (FIN), Izabela Waszak (SCT), Lucy Stockton-Smith (UK), Agathe Gizard (FR), Lea Jazbec (SLO), Franco G. Livera (ITA), Adam Engler(PT), Myriam Aitelhara (ALG), Kajoli Ilojak (UK), Emi Bici (DE), Peter Purg (SLO), Dimple B Shah (IND), Deej Fabyc & MJ Forde (IRL), Christine Fentz (FR), Sally Annett (FR).

TICKETS ARE DONATION BASED SO AS TO SUPPORT THE INITIATIVE'S GROWTH AND CONTINUATION.

The 'Be-coming Tree' project is a grassroots, artist-led and self-organised initiative started by Jatun Risba in co. with Danielle Imara and O. Pen Be. This Zoom event will be held with the assistance of Soren James (Zoom operator) and Alexandra Freitas (Photo/Video Documentation).

CONTACT INFO:
E-mail: artsofself@gmail.com
Eventbrite Event: LINK